

OUR JIM WAS THE WINNER.

He Simply Outgeneraled Colorado's Pet Pugilist.

EIGHT ROUNDS FOUGHT.

Mexican Pete Was Never in It For a Minute.

Although the Fight Was Given to Williams as a Foul, it Was Evident That Pete Purposely Fouled in Order to Prevent a Clean Knock Out By the Champion of Utah—Williams to Challenge Billy Woods.

Denver, Colo., July 5.—A special to the News from Creede, Colo., says:

James Williams, of Salt Lake, and Mexican Pete, of Colorado, fought tonight for a purse of $500 at the Vaudeville hall, the house being crowded. The men entered the ring at 10 o'clock. Charles Jones and Jack Hathaway were seconds for Williams, and Ed McCoy and Jack Sameo were the seconds of the Mexican. M. C. Edson was referee and T. S. Jones official timekeeper.

Both men seemed confident of winning at the start, but it developed before the first round was over that Pete was outgeneraled. He began to strike with his knees, and not stopping it, after being warned by the referee in the sixth and seventh rounds, the latter devoted the fight in favor of Williams in the eighth round on a foul.

The fight lasted 20 minutes. Pete was driven to the tactics he used in order to keep from being knocked out entirely.

Williams will challenge Billy Woods to fight him in 10 days.

GUNST AND ROOSEVELT.

The Former Will Probably Intervene in the Latter.

Chicago, July 5.—Police Commissioner Delaney, of San Francisco, while here investigating the police system of Chicago, found a young man in a cell at the city prison whom he knew. He was William Gunst, whose father he had been arrested and sent to the city prison at San Francisco, Cal. The charge against him was "being found with a revolver in his possession." Although at first disinclined to do so, James Delaney, when Mr. Gunst insisted on sending a telegram to his father, notifying him of his trouble and getting him out, he changed his mind. The money came and his son was released. The young man told his benefactor that he had been arrested for the country on the common law plan for a little while and was arrested on suspicion while occupying a hotel near the Alameda Central depot. He did not want to know that he had been arrested, and in speaking of the incident, says "Willie is no criminal, although he happened to be a victim of the common law. Others, the outlaws, but he is a gentleman from an old family. He is supposed to be working in the city of San Francisco." Gunst is a native of San Francisco. Police Commissioner Delaney announced himself a student of Chicago police matters. He is investigating the metropolitan police system for the purpose of making important changes in his own department. F. C. Gunst went to New York for a talk with Commissioner Roosevelt.

MAFFITT IS STUBBORN.

St. Louis, July 5.—Two more conferences were held today between Chairman Maffitt, of the state Democratic executive committee and representatives of the silver county, who are in the city. Maffitt refused to sign, and declared he would call a convention only when formally requested to do so by a majority of the county committee of the state.

JAY GOULD'S NEPHEW.

HE FINDS HIMSELF IN A PRETTY PICKLE.

Sued For Breach of Promise Almost Before His Romance Had Begun to a Degree.

Philadelphia, July 5.—The Evening Bulletin publishes the following today: Dr. Gilbert Joseph Palen, one of Philadelphia's most prominent society men, was arrested on Tuesday, on a writ charging him with breach of promise of marriage. The plaintiff is Miss Margaret May Thompson, Dr. Palen is the son of Dr. G. Palen, of this city, and nephew of the late Jay Gould. June 11 he was married to Miss Margaret May Thompson, daughter of William Adamson, Newburgh, Germany. The wedding was an unusually swell affair. Among those present were Miss Helen M. Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Gould, F. C. Gould and others of that distinguished family.

Thus far everything had proceeded as merrily as the proverbial and appropriate marriage bell, but there was disaster in store.

Young Dr. Palen had met and loved Miss Thompson, a young and very attractive professional nurse, and according to this young woman's story, he promised her marriage and let it be known far and wide it was their intention to become man and wife. This understanding continued, says the plaintiff, until her eyes were suddenly opened by the intelligence that Dr. Palen was wooing another. This was finally confirmed by his marriage to Miss Adamson.

After consulting with her friends, an attorney was instructed to institute proceedings in breach of promise, and a week or so ago they were begun in the court of common pleas. The result was that Judge Sulzberger directed a capias to issue for Dr. Palen's arrest. The writ being placed at $1,000.

In the course of their honeymoon wanderings, Dr. Palen and his bride finally stopped at Ocean City, N. J., and there the doctor was watched by officers representing the plaintiff until he left for Philadelphia on Tuesday last.

Upon his arrival home the writ was served, and the bridegroom accompanied the officers to the sheriff's

AWFUL WORK OF A MADMAN.

Kills Himself, His Wife and Four Children by Asphyxiation.

DELIBERATELY PLANNED.

Letter Written by the Man Produced at the Inquest.

Position of the Bodies When Found Indicated That Two of the Children Fought Desperately to Leave the Room After the Gas Had Been Turned On By the Lunatic Father—Was a Pitiful Sight—Effects of a Sunstroke.

Chicago, July 5.—Frederick Hellmann, a well-to-do mason contractor, murdered his wife and four children last night and then killed himself. The bodies were found this morning at his late residence, 1014 North Dearborn street, and it developed that the murder was carefully planned, and that the man intended to kill himself and end the existence of the members of his family. The dead man and his victims are:

Frederick Hellmann, aged 35.
Mrs. Ida Hellmann, aged 32.
Fred Hellmann, Jr., aged 11.
Ida Hellmann, aged 10.
William Hellmann, aged 7.
Hedwig Hellmann, the 5-year-old daughter.

The tragedy took place in a little brick cottage at Cornelia and Wood streets. It is supposed the act was that of a madman, as Hellmann was ten years ago sunstruck, from which he never completely recovered.

Suspicion was first aroused this morning by the fact that the house in which the Hellmanns lived was closed. After the usual hour for the family to be at the house, the mother and married sister of Hellmann, who lived next door, forced an entrance and the dead bodies were found.

The bodies were found in a room which had been the scene of a fight. The mother and sister of Hellmann, who lived next door, forced an entrance and the dead bodies were found.

The position of the bodies at the time they were found indicated that the two boys and older girl fought desperately to leave the room after the father had turned on the gas. The mother and baby were lying on the inside of the bed, as if in peaceful slumber, but the two boys and girl were in different attitudes and expressions of their faces were those of persons who had struggled hard.

The father's hand was firmly placed across the mouth of the older boy and there is an impression that the threat of other lad as though he had been strangled.

The Royal Baking Powder is the purest and strongest baking powder made.

It is the only baking powder that all the great International and State fairs wherever exhibited in competition with others.

A LIVELY SCANDAL.

WILL BE DEVELOPED OVER THE RECENT ESCAPE.

The Three Alleged Robbers Were Given the Greatest Freedom—Wilson and Other Officials Very Much Disgusted.

New York, July 5.—The escape of Kilkoran, Russell and Allen from the Ludlow street jail yesterday morning promises to develop a lively scandal. They were detained there pending extradition to Illinois for the robbery of the Springfield postoffice. The officers at the jail have pretended to be greatly puzzled over how the prisoners managed to secure the keys with which they overpowered the two jailers. It developed today, however, that the three prisoners had been allowed the greatest freedom. Women were allowed to enter the jail and associate with them, and recently, it is learned, they spent a whole evening in the reception room playing bagatelle and dominoes with women visitors. There now seems to be little doubt as to how they secured the weapons with which they bulldozed their keepers.

HAVE A RIGHT TO BE.

Postal Officials Disgusted Over the Escape.

Washington, July 5.—Postmaster General Wilson and other officials of his department are greatly disgusted over the escape of the accused postoffice robbers from the Ludlow street jail. Mr. Wilson today offered a reward of $1,000 each for their capture.

Colorado Springs, Colo., July 5.—For years it has been known that the gravel bed upon which Colorado Springs was built was impregnated with flour gold, but no method was devised for extracting the precious metal in paying quantities. Recently a large Pearce process plant was erected in the western part of the city for the purpose of collecting the gold and platinum from their aqueous solution as found here and in all the earth's water here and in all the earth's water here.

NEW METHOD OF SAVING FLOUR GOLD.

Has Been Found and Put Into Operation—Gold in the Drinking Water Even.

Colorado Springs, Colo., July 5.—For years it has been known that the gravel bed upon which Colorado Springs was built was impregnated with flour gold, but no method was devised for extracting the precious metal in paying quantities. Recently a large Pearce process plant was erected in the western part of the city for the purpose of collecting the gold and platinum from their aqueous solution as found here and in all the earth's water here and in all the earth's water here.

NEW METHOD OF SAVING FLOUR GOLD.

Has Been Found and Put Into Operation—Gold in the Drinking Water Even.

THE WATERS OF THE LAKE.

Chicago Police Think They Have Untangled a Mystery.

OWNER OF THE TORN MONEY.

It Was John Chambers, of Covington, Kentucky.

When He Left Home He Had $35,000, and a Young Woman in His Possession—Was Seen a Month Ago in Seattle—When He Said He Was Bound For the East, Probably Chicago—The Young Woman's Disappearance.

Chicago, July 5.—The police believe now that the mystery surrounding the $30,000 worth of torn money found on the Lake Shore between Twenty-second and Twenty-sixth streets a week ago is solved. They believe that the money was torn up by John Chambers, of Covington, Ky., and that his body is now under the waters of Lake Michigan.

Chambers was about 25 years of age and is said to belong to an excellent family in Covington. Some time ago he left home with about $35,000 in his possession and in company with a young woman. About a month ago he was seen in Seattle, Wash., by William F. Trimble, a fellow townsman.

Chambers told Trimble that he had been to Sitka, Alaska, and that all his money was gone excepting $6,000. The young woman and he had parted company, and Chambers, according to his own statements, was bound for the east—probably Chicago.

Trimble was at once urged to return to Chicago to make further inquiries regarding the missing man, but neither he nor the police have any doubt but that Chambers has killed himself.

A photograph of the board bearing Chambers' handwriting will be made tomorrow and submitted to his friends in Covington for a comparison of handwriting.

RIOT AT A PICNIC.

Awful Scenes at a Little Village in Indiana.

Chicago, July 5.—Startling reports of a desperate riot at Siberia, Perry county, Ind., are coming in by telephone and couriers from the scene of the encounter. Dr. William Lomax of White Sulphur Well, has just telephoned that a thousand men and women took part in the fight, that three men were dead and four fatally hurt and fifty seriously injured. The dead are: Fred Elmore, William Geis, Frank Hart.

The fatal hurt are: Peter Bender, Robert D. Hamer Stroud.

Siberia is but a hamlet of a few dozen straggling houses and a Roman Catholic church, the congregation of which is composed of Germans. They are a simple and industrious people, but have been greatly annoyed recently by persons opposed to their religion.

Yesterday, they planned to enjoy a great picnic in the woods surrounding the village. The entire population turned out to attend the picnic, and all went smoothly enough until several gangs of disturbers appeared on the scene, and began to make trouble. There was a number of booths on the grounds where intoxicants were served. These were liberally patronized by the intruders, who soon began to insult the Germans who were the natives.

The priest, who was present, counseled his people to avoid trouble, and pay no attention to the jeers of the half-drunk marauders. Mistaking this for cowardice, the intruders became bolder, and soon precipitated a fight, which in a few moments assumed the proportions of a desperate riot, in which everybody took part.

Chairs and beer bottles were brought into play and the peaceful picnic was immediately transformed into a mass of struggling, cursing men and screaming women.

Horrible Outrages.

Samuel Wilson, the leader of the outsiders, was armed with a huge knife, with which he stabbed and cut many persons. He was finally opposed by a sturdy German, who was more than a match for him until Wilson plunged the knife in his neck.

As the man fell back his wife sprang through the crowd and dealt Wilson a terrible blow with a beer bottle, crushing his skull. During the melee the charge of the regular United States army cavalry are a revelation to most of the spectators.

Following the Zouave drill there were exhibitions by different companies in the manual of arms and foot movements.

The charge of the regular United States army cavalry are a revelation to most of the spectators.

Following the Zouave drill there were exhibitions by different companies in the manual of arms and foot movements.

The charge of the regular United States army cavalry are a revelation to most of the spectators.

Following the Zouave drill there were exhibitions by different companies in the manual of arms and foot movements.

The charge of the regular United States army cavalry are a revelation to most of the spectators.

Following the Zouave drill there were exhibitions by different companies in the manual of arms and foot movements.

THE WATERS OF THE LAKE.

Chicago Police Think They Have Untangled a Mystery.

OWNER OF THE TORN MONEY.

It Was John Chambers, of Covington, Kentucky.

When He Left Home He Had $35,000, and a Young Woman in His Possession—Was Seen a Month Ago in Seattle—When He Said He Was Bound For the East, Probably Chicago—The Young Woman's Disappearance.

Chicago, July 5.—The police believe now that the mystery surrounding the $30,000 worth of torn money found on the Lake Shore between Twenty-second and Twenty-sixth streets a week ago is solved. They believe that the money was torn up by John Chambers, of Covington, Ky., and that his body is now under the waters of Lake Michigan.

Chambers was about 25 years of age and is said to belong to an excellent family in Covington. Some time ago he left home with about $35,000 in his possession and in company with a young woman. About a month ago he was seen in Seattle, Wash., by William F. Trimble, a fellow townsman.

Chambers told Trimble that he had been to Sitka, Alaska, and that all his money was gone excepting $6,000. The young woman and he had parted company, and Chambers, according to his own statements, was bound for the east—probably Chicago.

Trimble was at once urged to return to Chicago to make further inquiries regarding the missing man, but neither he nor the police have any doubt but that Chambers has killed himself.

A photograph of the board bearing Chambers' handwriting will be made tomorrow and submitted to his friends in Covington for a comparison of handwriting.

RIOT AT A PICNIC.

Awful Scenes at a Little Village in Indiana.

Chicago, July 5.—Startling reports of a desperate riot at Siberia, Perry county, Ind., are coming in by telephone and couriers from the scene of the encounter. Dr. William Lomax of White Sulphur Well, has just telephoned that a thousand men and women took part in the fight, that three men were dead and four fatally hurt and fifty seriously injured. The dead are: Fred Elmore, William Geis, Frank Hart.

The fatal hurt are: Peter Bender, Robert D. Hamer Stroud.

Siberia is but a hamlet of a few dozen straggling houses and a Roman Catholic church, the congregation of which is composed of Germans. They are a simple and industrious people, but have been greatly annoyed recently by persons opposed to their religion.

Yesterday, they planned to enjoy a great picnic in the woods surrounding the village. The entire population turned out to attend the picnic, and all went smoothly enough until several gangs of disturbers appeared on the scene, and began to make trouble. There was a number of booths on the grounds where intoxicants were served. These were liberally patronized by the intruders, who soon began to insult the Germans who were the natives.

The priest, who was present, counseled his people to avoid trouble, and pay no attention to the jeers of the half-drunk marauders. Mistaking this for cowardice, the intruders became bolder, and soon precipitated a fight, which in a few moments assumed the proportions of a desperate riot, in which everybody took part.

Chairs and beer bottles were brought into play and the peaceful picnic was immediately transformed into a mass of struggling, cursing men and screaming women.

Horrible Outrages.

Samuel Wilson, the leader of the outsiders, was armed with a huge knife, with which he stabbed and cut many persons. He was finally opposed by a sturdy German, who was more than a match for him until Wilson plunged the knife in his neck.

As the man fell back his wife sprang through the crowd and dealt Wilson a terrible blow with a beer bottle, crushing his skull. During the melee the charge of the regular United States army cavalry are a revelation to most of the spectators.

Following the Zouave drill there were exhibitions by different companies in the manual of arms and foot movements.

The charge of the regular United States army cavalry are a revelation to most of the spectators.

Following the Zouave drill there were exhibitions by different companies in the manual of arms and foot movements.

The charge of the regular United States army cavalry are a revelation to most of the spectators.

Following the Zouave drill there were exhibitions by different companies in the manual of arms and foot movements.

The charge of the regular United States army cavalry are a revelation to most of the spectators.

Following the Zouave drill there were exhibitions by different companies in the manual of arms and foot movements.

THE WATERS OF THE LAKE.

Chicago Police Think They Have Untangled a Mystery.

OWNER OF THE TORN MONEY.

It Was John Chambers, of Covington, Kentucky.

When He Left Home He Had $35,000, and a Young Woman in His Possession—Was Seen a Month Ago in Seattle—When He Said He Was Bound For the East, Probably Chicago—The Young Woman's Disappearance.

Chicago, July 5.—The police believe now that the mystery surrounding the $30,000 worth of torn money found on the Lake Shore between Twenty-second and Twenty-sixth streets a week ago is solved. They believe that the money was torn up by John Chambers, of Covington, Ky., and that his body is now under the waters of Lake Michigan.

Chambers was about 25 years of age and is said to belong to an excellent family in Covington. Some time ago he left home with about $35,000 in his possession and in company with a young woman. About a month ago he was seen in Seattle, Wash., by William F. Trimble, a fellow townsman.

Chambers told Trimble that he had been to Sitka, Alaska, and that all his money was gone excepting $6,000. The young woman and he had parted company, and Chambers, according to his own statements, was bound for the east—probably Chicago.

Trimble was at once urged to return to Chicago to make further inquiries regarding the missing man, but neither he nor the police have any doubt but that Chambers has killed himself.

A photograph of the board bearing Chambers' handwriting will be made tomorrow and submitted to his friends in Covington for a comparison of handwriting.

RIOT AT A PICNIC.

Awful Scenes at a Little Village in Indiana.

Chicago, July 5.—Startling reports of a desperate riot at Siberia, Perry county, Ind., are coming in by telephone and couriers from the scene of the encounter. Dr. William Lomax of White Sulphur Well, has just telephoned that a thousand men and women took part in the fight, that three men were dead and four fatally hurt and fifty seriously injured. The dead are: Fred Elmore, William Geis, Frank Hart.

The fatal hurt are: Peter Bender, Robert D. Hamer Stroud.

Siberia is but a hamlet of a few dozen straggling houses and a Roman Catholic church, the congregation of which is composed of Germans. They are a simple and industrious people, but have been greatly annoyed recently by persons opposed to their religion.

Yesterday, they planned to enjoy a great picnic in the woods surrounding the village. The entire population turned out to attend the picnic, and all went smoothly enough until several gangs of disturbers appeared on the scene, and began to make trouble. There was a number of booths on the grounds where intoxicants were served. These were liberally patronized by the intruders, who soon began to insult the Germans who were the natives.

The priest, who was present, counseled his people to avoid trouble, and pay no attention to the jeers of the half-drunk marauders. Mistaking this for cowardice, the intruders became bolder, and soon precipitated a fight, which in a few moments assumed the proportions of a desperate riot, in which everybody took part.

Chairs and beer bottles were brought into play and the peaceful picnic was immediately transformed into a mass of struggling, cursing men and screaming women.

Horrible Outrages.

Samuel Wilson, the leader of the outsiders, was armed with a huge knife, with which he stabbed and cut many persons. He was finally opposed by a sturdy German, who was more than a match for him until Wilson plunged the knife in his neck.

As the man fell back his wife sprang through the crowd and dealt Wilson a terrible blow with a beer bottle, crushing his skull. During the melee the charge of the regular United States army cavalry are a revelation to most of the spectators.

Following the Zouave drill there were exhibitions by different companies in the manual of arms and foot movements.

The charge of the regular United States army cavalry are a revelation to most of the spectators.

Following the Zouave drill there were exhibitions by different companies in the manual of arms and foot movements.

The charge of the regular United States army cavalry are a revelation to most of the spectators.

Following the Zouave drill there were exhibitions by different companies in the manual of arms and foot movements.

The charge of the regular United States army cavalry are a revelation to most of the spectators.

Following the Zouave drill there were exhibitions by different companies in the manual of arms and foot movements.

THE WATERS OF THE LAKE.

Chicago Police Think They Have Untangled a Mystery.

OWNER OF THE TORN MONEY.

It Was John Chambers, of Covington, Kentucky.

When He Left Home He Had $35,000, and a Young Woman in His Possession—Was Seen a Month Ago in Seattle—When He Said He Was Bound For the East, Probably Chicago—The Young Woman's Disappearance.

Chicago, July 5.—The police believe now that the mystery surrounding the $30,000 worth of torn money found on the Lake Shore between Twenty-second and Twenty-sixth streets a week ago is solved. They believe that the money was torn up by John Chambers, of Covington, Ky., and that his body is now under the waters of Lake Michigan.

Chambers was about 25 years of age and is said to belong to an excellent family in Covington. Some time ago he left home with about $35,000 in his possession and in company with a young woman. About a month ago he was seen in Seattle, Wash., by William F. Trimble, a fellow townsman.

Chambers told Trimble that he had been to Sitka, Alaska, and that all his money was gone excepting $6,000. The young woman and he had parted company, and Chambers, according to his own statements, was bound for the east—probably Chicago.

Trimble was at once urged to return to Chicago to make further inquiries regarding the missing man, but neither he nor the police have any doubt but that Chambers has killed himself.

A photograph of the board bearing Chambers' handwriting will be made tomorrow and submitted to his friends in Covington for a comparison of handwriting.

RIOT AT A PICNIC.

Awful Scenes at a Little Village in Indiana.

Chicago, July 5.—Startling reports of a desperate riot at Siberia, Perry county, Ind., are coming in by telephone and couriers from the scene of the encounter. Dr. William Lomax of White Sulphur Well, has just telephoned that a thousand men and women took part in the fight, that three men were dead and four fatally hurt and fifty seriously injured. The dead are: Fred Elmore, William Geis, Frank Hart.

The fatal hurt are: Peter Bender, Robert D. Hamer Stroud.

Siberia is but a hamlet of a few dozen straggling houses and a Roman Catholic church, the congregation of which is composed of Germans. They are a simple and industrious people, but have been greatly annoyed recently by persons opposed to their religion.

Yesterday, they planned to enjoy a great picnic in the woods surrounding the village. The entire population turned out to attend the picnic, and all went smoothly enough until several gangs of disturbers appeared on the scene, and began to make trouble. There was a number of booths on the grounds where intoxicants were served. These were liberally patronized by the intruders, who soon began to insult the Germans who were the natives.

The priest, who was present, counseled his people to avoid trouble, and pay no attention to the jeers of the half-drunk marauders. Mistaking this for cowardice, the intruders became bolder, and soon precipitated a fight, which in a few moments assumed the proportions of a desperate riot, in which everybody took part.

Chairs and beer bottles were brought into play and the peaceful picnic was immediately transformed into a mass of struggling, cursing men and screaming women.

Horrible Outrages.

Samuel Wilson, the leader of the outsiders, was armed with a huge knife, with which he stabbed and cut many persons. He was finally opposed by a sturdy German, who was more than a match for him until Wilson plunged the knife in his neck.

As the man fell back his wife sprang through the crowd and dealt Wilson a terrible blow with a beer bottle, crushing his skull. During the melee the charge of the regular United States army cavalry are a revelation to most of the spectators.

Following the Zouave drill there were exhibitions by different companies in the manual of arms and foot movements.

The charge of the regular United States army cavalry are a revelation to most of the spectators.

Following the Zouave drill there were exhibitions by different companies in the manual of arms and foot movements.

The charge of the regular United States army cavalry are a revelation to most of the spectators.

Following the Zouave drill there were exhibitions by different companies in the manual of arms and foot movements.

The charge of the regular United States army cavalry are a revelation to most of the spectators.

Following the Zouave drill there were exhibitions by different companies in the manual of arms and foot movements.

THE WATERS OF THE LAKE.

Chicago Police Think They Have Untangled a Mystery.

OWNER OF THE TORN MONEY.

It Was John Chambers, of